OUTLINES.

A vast fleet of 16 battleships and other United States naval vessels will be sent to the Pacific this Fall under command of Admiral Robley D. Evans; the details have been worked out at the Navay Department and the route will be 13,000 miles around South America; it will be the vastest fleet ever sent into Pacific waters, but it is explained that there is no intention in it to menace Japan.——A Tokio cablegram says Japanese naval authorities discredit the reasons assigned for the sending of a vast American fleet to Pacific waters; they intimate that it is absurd and that the fleet could be easily destroyed by torpedoes. ——Admiral Evans declares that it is absurd to think of menacing Japan. ——The Fort Dallas National Bank is insolvent and yesterday the doors were closed by order of the Comptroller of the Currency. ——The board of directors of the Jamestown Exposition last night formally placed Mr. James M. Barr at the head of the Exposition, and the stockholders authorized a second mortgage for about $325,000, to set the Exposition on its feet. ——Bradstreet's reports that a better crop outlook has stimulated business and that the position of cotton is specially strong. ——At Boise, Idaho, yesterday in the trial of W. D. Haywood, charged with the murder of Governor Steunenberg, several witnesses flatly contradicted Harry Orchard's story of crime. ——New York markets: Money on call, strong, 4 to 6 per cent.; ruling rate and closing bid 5; offered at 5 3-4; spot cotton, steady, 13.50; flour dull, but steady; wheat, weak, No. 2 red, 1.00 1-2 elevator; corn, easy, No. 2, 63 1-2 elevator; oats, steady, mixed, 49; turpentine, firm; rosin, firm, strained, common to good, 4.50 to 4.65.

The public hardly knows whether to believe that Mr. Rockefeller is lost, strayed, stolen, or off some where sawing wood.

Everybody ought to understand by now that the third term talk for Roosevelt is part of the campaign to enable Roosevelt to deliver the goods to the man he favors.

The Charleston News and Courier now makes claim to Charlotte as a South Carolina town. The South Carolinians have a good eye when it comes to picking things that they can get stuck up over.

A woman's magazine pretends to tell married women "how to keep their husbands straight." Most married women will go right on doing it in the old way—by "getting after them with a sharp stick."

Says the Whiteville News Reporter: "Moore men of influence and means are expressing themselves as favoring a cotton mill every day." They ought to see what Lumberton has done, get beyond the "expressing" stage and come down with the plunks to buy brick.

The New York World keeps on wanting to know "What is a Democrat?" He is the fellow who will have the backbone to vote right next year and won't feel like sneaking off with the mollycoddles when the balance of us are celebrating the election of a President who knows that his first business is to stand by the people.

A cablegram from Karlsrhue, Germany, says the attorneys of Professor Karl Hau, the young professor formerly attached to George Washington University, Washington, D. C., will attempt to prove that the Professor was insane when he killed his mother-in-law. Evidently he was crazy to get rid of his mother-in-law.

Some people do not seem to realize why there is a disposition to keep as much of their affairs out of the hands of the Federal government as possible. Centralized government is further away from the people and it can get so centralized that it gets entirely away from them, Our foreparents who came to America from Europe, have instilled into their descendants.

Mr. J. A. Sharpe, who for nearly two years has been editor of the Textile Excelsior, a trades paper published at Charlotte, has assumed editorial charge of the Lumberton Robesonian. Mr. Sharpe is an experienced and able newspaper man, and the Robesonian is to be congratulated upon having secured such an acquisition.

The more rows Uncle Sam has over his foreign relations the more painful to him will be his neglect to heed George Washington's parting advice to "avoid all entangling alliances," or words to that effect. The trouble with this country is that it has some men who have imagined that they have George Washington skinned on horse sense.

JNO. D. WOODY DEAD

Prominent Citizen of New Hanover County Died Suddenly Early Last Night.

HEART DISEASE THE CAUSE

Fell in Hallway of His Home, Was Dead in Half an Hour—Funeral Probably Sunday Afternoon. Absent Members of Family.

Mr. John D. Woody, a leading citizen of the county, and for a number of years a prominent merchant of this city as a member of the wholesale commission firm of Woody & Currie, died suddenly last night at 8 o'clock at his home on Greenville Sound, aged 69 years. Mr. Woody had been unwell for several days, but had been up and about his farm and was in the city a few days ago. No one suspected that his condition was at all critical and he himself believed that he was suffering with nothing more than a slight attack of indigestion. Just after supper last night he was passing through one of the halls of his home when he was suddenly attacked with heart failure and fell to the floor. He remained conscious long enough to call to his wife, and Mrs. Woody and his daughter in-law came to his side, lifting him gently to a bed in an adjoining room, where he expired half an hour later, without regaining consciousness. Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy was summoned to attend the sick man, but Mr. Woody was dead when Dr. Bellamy reached the home, after making all due haste.

The news of Mr. Woody's death will be received with great sorrow by a large number of friends in Wilmington and elsewhere. He was a man of genial nature, and strong character, kindly in his disposition, but reserved in manner. He took an active part in the upbuilding of his county and community, and his presence in this city and in the neighborhood in which he dwelt will be keenly felt. Mr. Woody is survived by a devoted wife and five sons, Messrs. Edward and Samuel Woody, of New York; John D. Woody, Jr., who lived with his father on Greenville Sound; Malcolm Woody, with the D. L. Gore Company in this city, and Thos. K. Woody, Esq., a member of the Wilmington bar. They have the tenderest sympathy of the community in the loss which they have sustained. Absent members of the family were notified of the death last night and as soon as the hour of their arrival here is known, the arrangements for the funeral will be made. The services will probably be held Sunday after noon, however.

THE MAYOR'S COURT.

Fourth of July Offenders Greatly In Evidence Yesterday.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday a large aggregation of Fourth of July drunks and scrappers were in evidence, some having survived the day with a whole skin, while others were disfigured in various ways.

L. Godwin and Alex Wright, charged with being drunk and down, were fined $5 and costs.

Powell Marcus, Mary D. Green and Geo. Powers, white, charged with being drunk and disorderly, were taxed with the costs.

Rosa Corbett, charged with vagrancy, was given the usual sentence for that offence—30 days. Chas. Johnson, white, drunk and disorderly, was given 30 days on the county roads.

W. R. Dowdy, colored, and Lafayette King, white, were charged with driving unlicensed carts. The first named was taxed with the costs and the latter was discharged.

A. R. Croom and A. M. Odom, charged with an affray, gave bond until tomorrow, when the charges will be investigated.

Daniel Murphy, colored, charged with an assault on another negro, was discharged for lack of evidence.

The Mayor had far from a holiday Thursday, having disposed of about 25 cases of more or less importance. The most important case was that of Lizzie Roderick, charged with an assault on Joe Roderick. She was given 30 days on the county farm.

Two negro women for vagrancy, three for disorderly conduct, and two for an affray were sent to the county farm on 30-day terms.

Eight negroes and one white man were up for driving unlicensed carts or drays, and were for the most part discharged. All other cases were of little importance.

DR. DREHER IS LEADING

Tournament for Murchison Trophy Continued at Traps of Wilmington Gun Club Yesterday Afternoon. Meeting Monday Evening.

Sixteen men faced the traps of the Wilmington Gun Club yesterday afternoon in the third turn at the targets for the handsome cup offered as a trophy by J. W. Murchison & Co. Some of the men were a little sore from the fourth of July merchandise shoot, but in spite of this handicap, some very good scores were made. Dr. J. H. Dreher, after the shoot yesterday afternoon is leading for the Murchison trophy with 200 out of the 250 targets to be used in the tourney. Penny led the shooting for the afternoon in 23 out of 25 at the 20-yard line. Mr. George Harriss entered for the Peters trophy, breaking 76 out of 100. The scores in detail were as follows:

	Shot At.	Broke.
Truelove	100	64
Howell	100	35
Holmes	150	116
Penny	250	197
Fuchs	25	8
Stokley	125	96
Dreher	250	200
Bellamy	75	55
Empie	100	62
Warren	100	72
Boushee	250	187
Boylan	75	48
Wessel	200	139
Bennett	75	36
Perdew	50	22
Littig	125	87

Mr. E. H. Storr, representing the Peters Cartridge Company, was a guest of the club and shot 178 out of 200 from 18 and 19 yards.

There will be a special meeting of the club Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock for the purpose of considering the matter of holding an Inter-State shoot here in August in connection with the Firemen's Tournament.

LUMBERTON NEWS NOTES.

Negro Drowned, Countryman Injured. Alex Townsend Dead.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., July 5.—Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, while a crowd of colored people were bathing in Lumber river, half a mile below town, Tom Watts became entangled with some object in the water and was drowned. He was engaged with the Seaboard Air Line as a laborer with the bridge force, and is said to have been from Georgia. The body has not yet been recovered.

Early last night a countryman who was in town rather late, started out on a bicycle, and while going at a high rate of speed, collided with the corner of the pavement near the court house. He was thrown several feet and was conveyed to a near-by drug store unconscious, where he was treated by a physician. It required five stitches to repair a severe scalp wound. Two quarts of whiskey, it is stated, escaped injury.

A valuable mule belonging to Dr. J. D. Regan, escaped from the stable last night and was found dead on the street this morning, death being caused, it is supposed, from eating too much green corn.

Mr. Alex. Townsend, residing at Back Swamp, six miles from Lumberton, died yesterday aged 80 years. Mr. Townsend was a highly respected citizen in his community. He had been blind for several years, which prevented his taking an active part in the affairs of life. The funeral was conducted this afternoon by the Masonic lodge of this place.

Supt. Blair in Virginia.

Friends of Mr. John J. Blair in this city will be interested to know that he is now at Covington, Va., where he is one of the instructors in the Summer School there. Mr. Blair goes from Covington, Va., to Knoxville, Tenn., where he will teach in the Summer School of the South for the remainder of the season.

Industrial Education at A. & M. College.

"The world is demanding men who can do, as well as think," says President Winston. "The best equipment for a young man today is technical skill, knowledge, and power. A century ago education was for the few, and was designed to equip them for the learned professions; today education is for the many, and is intended to fit them for life's practical work."

The advertisement of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts appears in another column. This college has courses of instruction in Agriculture, 104 students; Civil Engineering, 101 students; Electrical Engineering, 108 students; Mechanical Engineering, 71 students; Cotton Manufacturing, Chemistry, and Dyeing, 52 students. Besides the regular four year courses there are short courses and special courses and special courses in Machine Work, Drawing and Designing, Carding and Spinning, Weaving, Cloth Analysis Agriculture and Dairying.

Next session begins September 4, 1907. For catalogue, etc., address President Winston, West Raleigh, N. C.

THE DAY OBSERVED

Unusually Heavy Travel to Resorts Around Wilmington on Fourth of July.

SEVERAL EVENTS IN CITY

Two Baseball Games and Trap Shoot By Gun Club—All Records Broken By Consolidated Company. Fine Service on Steamer.

The Fourth of July has come and gone. Of its coming there is little to be said. Of its going the same is true except for the fact that the day was marked by possibly the heaviest travel to the resorts Wilmington ever recorded. In the city there was a general suspension of business and the streets except the car junction and steamer wharves presented a deserted appearance. It seems accepted hereabouts that everybody must go somewhere on "the fourth" and they went. The transportation lines had made extra preparations for handling the crowds and these preparations seem to have been amply justified by the traffic. There was little at either of the beaches in the amusement line except the natural attractions of the resorts, but these seemed amply sufficient for the jostling, good-humored throngs that swarmed them. In the city the two events that attracted attention were the baseball games in the City League at Hilton Park and the trap shoot for merchandise prizes by the Wilmington Gun Club on its grounds near Delgado. Both of these events were well patronized and both were highly successful for the sport afforded.

The crowds at Wrightsville Beach eclipsed all former records by at least 1,000. From the official report of fares collected and tickets sold on the suburban cars during the day the attendance was 8,500. And right here it should be said that the travel was handled with more ease and with greater dispatch than ever before. From General Manager Skelding down to the switchman made necessary by the large number of extra trains, every man in the employ of the company seemed to be working for a record and they made good. Three and four cars en train were operated on a through schedule every half hour during the day with a local car to handle the local traffic.

There were something over a hundred of these trains during the day back and forth and it is a credit to the transportation officials, motormen and conductors of the company that during the day every train was right on the minute and there was not the slightest accident of any kind. At Lumina the cars were run into an enclosure and passengers were not permitted to board the cars while in motion and all were requested to stand outside the railing until the incoming cars were clear. The crowds accepted the order of the company good naturedly as for the public benefit and the arrangement worked beautifully.

At Wrightsville all the club houses, hotels and pavilions were open and at Gay Lumina there were the usual attractions with music and dancing but no attempt was made at any set programme of celebration. On account of a lack of interest the annual regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club was not sailed, but there will be other races of the fleet later in the season. There were many members and their friends during the day and night at the handsome building of the Hanover Seaside Club, a feature of the evening having been a fireworks display given by Mr. John H. Rehder. At the hotels there were special dances and music both day and night.

At Carolina Beach there was a good crowd and the amusements consisted of bowling, dancing, trap shooting and fishing. There were four trips of the steamer Wilmington during the day, connecting at the pier with the Madeleine operated to Southport. The service was all and more than the public could ask and the day passed off most pleasantly and quietly at the favored resort. Many of the passengers from the city went on through to Southport stopping at the beach on their return. Capt. Harper was well pleased with the results of the day and his patrons were none the less so themselves.

The games of baseball at Hilton Park were well attended and no finer exhibition of the sport have been witnessed in this city. In the morning the Monarchs and Giants, who tied in an eleven inning game Saturday, played off the tie with the result that Monarchs closed the door on the heels of their adversaries by a score of one to nothing. The Giants and Rattlers played in the afternoon the Giants winning three to two.

The "merchandise shoot" by the Wilmington Gun Club was an event of much interest not only to the participants but to a large number of spectators. There were two events of 50 and 25 targets, respectively, and every shooter received a prize from the 36 donations made by the merchants of the city. The scores were as follows, the first column being out of 50, the second out of 25:

Boushee	41	14
Boylan	39	19
Warren	40	18
Dreher	40	20
Wessell	28	15
Littig	34	18
Empie	40	17
Ahrens	34	..
Holmes	38	17
Penny	33	18
Stofkley	42	20
Bennett	21	15
Loder	26	8
Jarman	22	..
Merriman	22	16
Bellany	32	22
Truelove	31	12
Kelley	..	14
Richardson	..	20

Aside from the set events of the day, there were a large number of private hunting, fishing and picnic parties both up and down the river, for the "glorious fourth" and as a whole Wilmington, perhaps, has cause to be proud of her celebration of National independence.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF

Justice Furlong Finds for Pilot Who Sued to Enforce Cape Fear Pilotage Bill—Appeal to Superior Court—Contentions.

Justice John J. Furlong yesterday signed judgment in favor of the plaintiff in the test case brought by Capt. William St. George, a Cape Fear pilot, to sustain the compulsory pilotage act passed by the recent session of the Legislature, the defendant in this particuar action being Capt. Frank P. Hardie, master of the schooner Helen E. Thompson, which refused to pay the pilotage fees upon her recent trip to this port. From the judgment in favor of the plaintiff, Messrs. Russell & Goodman and Preston Cumming, counsel for the defendant and representing the Wilmington shipping interest opposed to the compulsory pilotage, took an appeal to the Superior Court. An effort will be made to get a hearing of the case before Justice J. Crawford Biggs in chambers when he is here the last of the month to hold the criminal court, this being in order that the questions at issue may get to the Supreme Court and be decided finally as soon as possible.

The hearing before Justice Furlong was largely upon affidavits and an agreed state of facts, which are largely set out in the complaint and not denied by the defendant, whose position is to upset the law. The answer to the complaint denies that the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage were duly appointed, according to law, but admits that on April 15th, 1907, they qualified and organized and entered upon their alleged duties. It is set up as a further cause of action that the members of the said Board who issued pilots' license were commissioned by the Governor before their offices existed and before the act itself was in effect. It is further alleged that the act is unconstitutional in that it undertakes to regulate Inter-State commerce as to coastwise steam vessels contrary to the act of Congress in such cases, made and provided. It is also set up that the act undertakes to discriminate against the defendant captain of the schooner and all other vessel masters and their owners, by denying them a stay of execution on bond given or money deposited, and to confer on pilots licensed under the act the exclusive privilege of collecting and obtaining fees by execution. It is further stated to be contrary to law in the fact that judicial powers are conferred on the Commissioners.

Messrs. Rountree & Carr and Eugene S. Martin are counsel for the pilots, and it is safe to say that the case will be carried to the court of last resort.

HOCUTT—MC MANUS.

Married Thursday Evening at Home of Pastor F. D. Hale.

Mr. Thos. S. McManus, manager of the Wilmington exchange of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, and Miss Sarah May Hocutt, the attractive young daughter of Mrs. C. M. Hocutt, were married Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, in this city. There were present to witness the nuptials only a few very intimate friends and relatives, but the ceremony is described as having been very pretty and impressive. The bride was becomingly gowned in a handsome blue Panama tailor-made travelling suit with hat and gloves to match. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McManus took carriages for the Coast Line station, whence they took their departure for an extended bridal tour, returning from which they will be at home at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, for the Summer. Their wedding tour will embrace a trip up the St. Lawrence river through the Thousand Islands to Toronto, then to Montreal and Saratoga, and from there to Niagara Falls and Albany; thence down the Hudson to New York and to Philadelphia, where they will spend a few days with side trips to Atlantic City, then down to Baltimore, Washington and the Jamestown Exposition being joined at the latter point by Mr. McManus' three children from Jacksonville, Fla., spending some time at the Exposition and returning for a few days in Washington and Baltimore. Then Mr. and Mrs. McManus come to Wilmington, arriving here about the last of the month.

While Mr. McManus is away the exchange here will be in charge of Acting Manager R. L. Boyd.

FOURTH AT MAXTON

Great Rally of Cotton Growers on Independence Day in Robeson County.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MET

Urge Farmers Not to Sell for September and October Delivery—Prominent Speakers, a Picnic and Baseball Game—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C. July 5.—The independence of the country and the independence of the cotton growers were celebrated here simultaneously today. Large crowds gathered from all the surrounding country in response to an invitation from the Robeson Cotton Growers' Association of which ex-Sheriff Geo. B. McLeod is chairman. The genial ex-sheriff was master of ceremonies and Col. E. F. MacRae made the welcome address. He was happy in his remarks and everybody was given the freedom of the town.

It was noon when the great crowd assembled in the Graded School Building to attend the exercises. Chairman McLeod introduced the first speaker President C. C. Moore, of the State Division. His homely, effective style took well with the audience. The impressions made by his quaint illustrations were lasting. He reviewed his ten days' tour of Robeson county, told of the great warehouse movement and declared he would rather own a farm here than in the Mississippi valley. He urged the question of better drainage of farm lands and suggested a bond issue to this end.

Mr. J. H. Currie, of Cumberland, a member of the State Executive Committee, was the next speaker. He spoke in entertaining and pleasing manner. He made a plea for education of the cotton growers and lauded the traditions of the South. Co-operation of the merchant, farmer and banker was greatly to be desired and emphasis was laid upon the principle that in unity there is strength.

Mr. Ashley Horne, of Clayton, was the next speaker. He is a member of the Executive Committee, and made a most effective speech. He made a pleasant reference to the clarion call of 'Hold Robeson and Save the State," paying high tribute to the county and its people. He discussed immigration to some extent and said that immigrants fro m the North and West were more to be desired than foreign population. Twelve and one-half cents cotton, he said, would attract them and if it did not, the South didn't want them. His advice to the farmers is to go in an opposite direction from the speculator. Mr. Horne stated that he has secured Dr. Knapp and Mr. Hay, of the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington, to speak at the Farmers' State Convtntion on the 28th.

Mr. A. J. McKinnon concluded the exercises with a brief reference to the Cotton Journal edited by Mr. Harvie Jordan.

At the close of the exercises an elegant dinner was spread in the grove of the Presbyterian Church. In the afternoon a very fine game of baseball was played between Maxton and McColl's, S. C., the Maxton team winning in twelve innings of great playing, five to four.

The State Executive Committee of the Cotton Association held it semi-annual meeting in connection with the great rally. There were in attendance: President Moore, Mr. McKinnon, Mr. Horne, Mr. Currie, Mr. McLeod and Mr. T. J. W. Broom, of Union county. The committee will issue a special plea to the growers of the State that no cotton be sold for delivery in September and October and that no cotton be sold in those months for less than a minimum to be fixed by the central committee. The committee expressed appreciation for the great assistance of the newspapers of the State in their uniform kindness in publishing the matter of the Association and freely said that but for the valuable help from the papers the Association would not be the success that it is today. The next meeting of the committee will be August 29th at the State Convention at the A. & M. College, Raleigh. At the same time there will be a State meeting of delegates from every township and county division in North Carolina. An effort will also be made to organize the ginners of each county.

The Presbyterian Standard Publishing Company of Charlotte, is chartered with $50,000 capital authorized and $1,500 subscribed by P. R. Law, R. A. Morrow and others. An amendment is to the charter of the Tidewater Power Power Co., of Wilmington, to allow an increase of capital from $500,000 to $600,000 common and $200,000 to $600,000 preferred stock. A. B. Skelding, H. M. Chase and M. F. H. Gouverneur, are among the stockholders. The Ocean View Hotel Co., of Wrightsville Beach, surrenders its charter. S. A. Schols is secretary.

Establish Mill in Pender.

Mr. J. R. Hawes has purchased from the Carolina Real Estate Trust Company, of this city, one thousand acres of well timbered lands in Pender county and will shortly establish a saw mill on the tract. The deed for the property was filed for record this week at Burgaw.

WOODROW WILSON SUGGESTS THE JAIL.

Governor Hughes, of New York, and President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton University, were the orators at the joint Independence Day celebration, July 4th, at the Jamestown Exposition, where the first reunion of the lineal descendants of signers of the Declaration of Independence was held as a feature of the day. The reunion was held under the auspices of the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Association, of which former Secretary of the Navy H. A. Herbert, of Alabama, is acting president.

The celebration was a patriotic demonstration worthy of the day; but it remained for Dr. Woodrow Wilson to make it more notable by his speech. In his address Dr. Wilson paid a good deal of attention to government regulation of trusts and corporations. Among other things, he declared that individual accountability for the acts of corporations, the arrest and imprisonment of corporation heads, instead of the fining or dissolution of corporations themselves, is the remedy for the monopolistic tendencies and the unlawful practices of modern industry.

"One really responsible man in jail," he said, "one real originator of schemes and transactions which are contrary to the public interest legally lodged in the penitentiary would be worth more than a thousand corporations mulcted in fines, if the reform is to be genuine and permanent."

What this country needs, Dr. Wilson set forth, is not government ownership of railroads, etc., but laws that will attack and punish presidents and general managers of railroad for evasions and violations of the statutes. Stock manipulations he calls "sheer thefts," and says they should be punished as such. Failure to do so, in his mind, is "like overlooking highway robbery."

"Every corporation," the eminent educator stated, "is personally directed, either by some one dominant person or by some group of persons. Somebody in particular is responsible for ordering or sanctioning every illegal act committed by its agents or officers; but neither our law of personal damage nor our criminal law has sought to seek the responsible persons out and hold them individually accountable for the acts complained of. We have never attempted such statutes. We indict corporations themselves, find them guilty of illegal practices, fine them and leave the individuals who devise and execute the illegal acts free to discover new evasions."

Such acts could be passed and should be if we are to better our industrial conditions, Dr. Wilson believes. Unless something of this nature is done and done quickly, he fears Socialism will re sult.

It is just as absurd, he said, to indict or dissolve corporations for offenses against the public as it would be to arrest and confiscate automobiles because their owners killed pedestrians.

This is not the first time Dr. Wil- has spoken out on this question. a Democrat in his party affil- nd is both a student of polit- , public polity and the the- cracy. He is a strong rongly urged by many rs for the Democratic for President in 1908. A , his qualifications for l office were exploited editorial by Dr. Harvey Weekly. Dr. Harvey is a er of Dr. Wilson, and so of eminent men and lead- e North.

The South would enthusiastically Dr. Wilson for President. He born in Columbia, S. C., practi- raised in Wilmington, and has ided mostly in the North. He is e son of the late beloved Rev. Dr. R. Wilson, who for many years was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilmington, and who spent many of his declining years in our city, which was always the object of his affection and, where he lived in the hearts of the people. His son would make an ideal President for the Republic, if he has any political aspirations, and the Democratic party picks him out for the winner.

HAVE THE PEOPLE GONE WRONG?

The Charlotte Evening Chronicle thus reminds us: "The Pennsylvania campaign in Pennsylvania will open on September 16th and the Democratic have arranged what they call a museum of graft, which they will carry in their tour of the State. Illustrating how the Republicans robbed taxpayers, they will show the chair which cost $26, but for which Sanderson collected from the State under the per-foot rule, $110. Another exhibit will be a boot-black stand, for which the State paid $1,619, but which could be purchased for $16.95. A A clothes-tree, which cost the State $73.60, and which could be duplicated at retail price for $11 will be another exhibit. No campaign was ever entered by the Democrats with better ammunition, but we are not looking for any decided revolution in either the politics or the morals of that State."

In that event it would show that there is something wrong with the people as well as the politicians. After such an expose by the Democrats and they are turned down for the boodler party, it would give a severe jolt to our confidence in the qualifications of the people for self-rule. When the people as a mass lose their integrity and sense of right and justice, we will begin to think the jig's up. However, things are mighty rotten all round in Pennsylvania and we've got our doubts as well as the Chronicle.

The Democrats of Pennsylvania do not want better campaign thunder than to carry around with them the stack of evidence taken by the commission which is investigating the monstrous steal perpetrated in the building of Pennsylvania's new capitol. If the voters do not resent that infamy—if they do not spurn the gong which has brought humilation and obliquy upon the State—the balance of us can hang our heads down when the Europeans sneer at us about our idea of government by the people.

DEMOCRATIC PROSPECTS IN 1908.

In an editorial some days ago The Star said:

"There is hope for the Democrats in 1908 if they are wise enough to name a ticket and adopt a platform that will unite the party."

That is our honest judgment, and we are not deterred from believing it by the years of defeat which the party has suffered in Presidential campaigns. Previous defeats mean nothing, as the New York World shows in an editorial answering its own query: "What is a Democrat?" The World said in part:

"The Democratic party is necessary.

"'This is not the first time Democrats have despaired of the party's future. In 1872, 35 years ago, the Democrats nominated for President a bitter anti-Democrat who was a Republican, a protectionist, a prohibitionist and a Socialist. Horace Greeley's defeat was a rout—overwhelming and unparalleled. Seemingly the Democratic party was destroyed, annihflated, exterminated. But at the very next election, only four years later, this annihilated, exterminated Democratic party arose from the dead, elected Samuel J. Tilden President on the face of the returns and had a popular plurality of 250,000 to spare.

"Who knows what the next sixteen months may bring forth? What if the Democratic party should purify its organization? What if the party should return to its true principles? What if Mr. Bryan, content with his undisputed laurels as chief orator of the party and its greatest agitator of the masses, were to make the personal sacrifice of declining the Presidential nomination in favor of such a man as Judge Gray, for example?

"Nothing can crush the Democratic party but itself. Nothing can destroy the Democratic party but its own refusal to be Democratic. Let it return to its true principles. Let it clean its own house."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Those South Carolina farmers who have been selling cotton for fall delivery at ten cents must be feeling blue these days.—Charlotte Observer.

—Friday's New York Sun says the President has decided to let Oklahoma come in as a state as soon as she can do the districting, redrawing the lines soRepublicans will have a chance to elect two of the five members of the House of Representatives.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—During the past few days a large number of cotton mills of this State and South Carolina have declared dividens, that reflected a properous and growing condition. In fact it would seem that all the mills are having the best year of their history.—Charlotte News.

—If Japan should undertake to fight through the boycott of American goods, the farmers in this section would be the first to suffer. That country buys practically all of our tobacco primings. We are about the only people growing tobacco who cure the primings and Japan buys that grade heavily. We had better make up with Japan, we are being touched on our pocket nerve now.—Florence Times.

"More and more it appears to be the fact that the Roosevelt third term racket is being worked for all it it is worth, with Roosevelt as chief promoter. The position of Secretary Taft is getting to be really pitible, and we are surprised that he has not long ago found that he is being used as a buffer for Roosevelt's benefit. It is in the air that he is losing ground, even if he ever had a chance, which is doubtful.—Montgomery Advertiser.

—Our orphanage has always been blessed with a constituency that can not be matched at all. The Baptist people of North Carolina are as fine white folks as can be found in the world. Dr. Jacobs accuses us of stopping a little too high at this point, but we fall back on the facts and let them speak. Where on the face of the earth can a denominatin of a single State be found who freely and juyfully gave $52,000 to their orphans work in a single year!.—Thomasville Charity and Children."

TWINKLINGS.

"Hi, Chimmy! So yer boss granmudder is dead, hey?" "Dat's wot he says. I reckon we'll see him at de ball game."—Washington Herald.

—Mrs. Dash—Mother says that she wants to be cremated. Dash—Just my luck! I haven't a match with me.—Smart Set.

Pat—The next wan o' they chauffeurs as runs over me'll be sorry for ut. Thomas—And why's that Pat?—I've got a tin o' nitro-glycerine in me pocket!—Punch.

—"Yes, indeed, Mr. Higgins, I was in such a frame of mind that I was besides myself." "If I was as sweet as you are I would endeavor to be in that frame of mind all the time."—Hourton Post.

—Husband (explaining his late home coming)—My dear, I couldn't help it. I just missed the last car and had to wait forty minutes. Wife—Now don't blame it on the street car company They've troubles enough without you. —Detroit Free Press.

—"If you don't take care of your money," said the ant to the grashopper, "the world will neer and ask you what you did with it." "Yes, and if I invest it and become rich the world will sneer and ask me where I got it."—Washington Star.

More Than Quinine.

Quinine is simply one of the products of the Cinchona Bark, and the drug which is used in GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC contains more of the active principles of Cinchona Bark than ordinary Quinine. Everyone knows that Whole Wheat and Graham Flour contain more nutriment than ordinary white flour, as part of the properties of the wheat are lost in rendering the flour white. This same thing is true of Quinine, and the drug used in this preparation is a special product which contains more valuable properties than ordinary Quinine. The Standard for 30 years. 50c.

AGE NO BAR.

Everybody in Wilmington is Eligible.

Old people stooped with suffering.
Middle age, courageously fighting.
Youth protesting impatiently;
Children, unable to explain;
All in misery from ther kidneys.
Only a little backache first.
Comes when you catch a cold.
Or when you strain the back.
Many complications follow.
Urinary disorders, diabetes, Bright's disease.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure backache.
Cure every form of kidney ills.

J. T. Ebert, formerly of 515 South Sixth street, Wilmington, N. C. says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills in my family. My little girl complained of severe pains in the small of her back and the kidney secretions were dark and full of brickdust sediment. We were very much worried about her and when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I went up to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box and gave them to her. Since using them she has improved wonderfully and is a different child. Her kidney secretions cleared up, she does not complain of her back, and in fact Doan's Kidney Pills gave her new life. We are very much pleased with them and you can use my name and welcome."

JUSTICE BORNEMANN'S COURT.

Reynolds-Moore Case Postponed—Several Thursday Offenders.

In Justice Bornemann's court yesterday the case of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, who was charged by Malcomb S. Reynolds with false pretense with intent to defraud, was called for trial but Moore, through his attorney, had the hearing of the case postponed until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Reynolds has employed Herbert McClammy to prosecute the case and Moore has retained B. G. Empie, Esq.

Della Larkins, Elizabeth Bowden, Hester Williams and Julia Sumpter, charged with disorderly conduct were before the justice, but in consideration of its being the Fourth of July, the "Judge" felt that he ought to be lenient with them and judgment was suspended in all the cases.

Justice Bornemann has just had some valuable statistics compiled of the names and dates of marriage of every couple he has united in matrimony. The list shows that he has joined together 101 white, and 129 colored couples since he became magistrate, a record that can hardly be rivaled by any other magistrate in the State.

MRS. P. M. M'RARY DEAD.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Thursday Afternoon—Funeral.

Mrs. Pattie M. McRary, relict of the late William H. McRary of Wilmington, passed away Thursday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock at her home in this city, southwest corner of Third and Market streets, the handsome residence which was the headquarters of Lord Cornwallis when the British occupied this territory during the Revolutionary period.

Mrs. McRary had been in feeble health for more than a year and while her death was not unexpected, it came as a sad blow to the family and friends She had reached the advanced age of 73 years and would have celebrated her seventy-fourth birthday on the 17th of next February.

Mrs. McRary was a daughter of Thomas Rowe and Mary Josephine Arrington Wiggins and early in life the family moved to Alabama where her father died some years later. She married the late William Hamilton McRary, who was engaged in the cotton commission business here on a large scale both before and just after the war, amassing a considerable fortune. Mrs. McRary is survived by one sister, Mrs. Rowe Wiggins; a nephew, Mr. G. Herbert Smith, of this city, and a niece, Mrs. Adele Jones, of Warrenton, N. C. They have the sympathy of friends in the sorrow which has come to them.

Mrs. McRary was reputed to be the wealthiest woman in the State, leaving a large estate variously estimated at from half to one million dollars. She was a devoted communicant of St. James' Episcopal Church and the funeral was conducted from there at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Bishop Robert Strange and the Rev. Edward Wootten officiating. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery, the pallbearers having been: Honorary, Drs. Geo. G. Thomas and W. J. H. Bellamy; active, Messrs. J. H. Boatwright Wm. Calder, Geo. W. Kidder, William Gilchrist, William Latimer and C. E. Taylor.

THE SANITARY COMMITTEE.

Meeting Last Night for General Consideration of Affairs.

Alderman S. J. Ellis has decided to accept the chairmanship of the Sanitary Committee of the city, and last night at the City Hall had a conference of his committee with the Mayor for the purpose of considering carefully the work of this department in detail and to systematize matters so that the machinery of the department may work more smoothly in the future. The Mayor and members of the committee think now that a system has been devised whereby greater efficiency will result and this will be put into effect at once.

Alderman Ellis also has membership on the Finance and the Light Committees of the Board of Aldermen and has taken hold of affairs in a manner that augurs a most satisfactory career for him as an Alderman.

Tracking on Front Street.

The Mayor, members of the Streets and Wharves Committee and City Engineer C. R. Humphreys yesterday afternoon inspected the work of the laying of the double track on Front street, opposite The Orton, some complaint having been made that the grade to the west side of the street was being left too steep by an elevation of the rail on that side. The whole matter was turned over to the City Engineer with instruction to see that the defect is corrected.

The Children Entertained.

The children were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock during the story-telling hour at the public library. During the Summer until the Fall these story-telling hours for the benefit of the little folks will be given only on the first Friday afternoon in each month, the hour being 5 o'clock instead of 3 P. M., as heretofore.

At Grovetown, Ga., yesterday, in a dispute over a 4th of July baseball game, R. Young was shot and killed by a man named Capers.

Long Live The King.

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other.

Meet Here Next Year.

Mr. Jas. E. Hall is expected to return this morning from Durham, N. C., where he attended the annual convention of the North Carolina Letter Carriers' Association. The sessions concluded Thursday night, with election of officers and a decision to meet here on the fourth of July next year. The Rural Letter Carriers' Association is a branch of the service and among the officers elected were D. J. Ward, of Brunswick county, musician, and E. D. Pearsall, of Pender county, assistant editor of the State organ. The meeting at Durham was in every way a magnificent success.

—Mr. Dawson F. Barnes, of Lake Charles, La., is in the city to spend a vacation. He is a son of Mr. Daniel F. Barnes, chief machinist for the Hilton Lumber Company, this being his first trip to Wilmington in three years.

DEATH OF JUDGE SWAYNE.

Was Butt of Impeachment Trial in Florida Years Ago.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Pa., July 5.—Judge Charles Swayne, of the United States Court for the Northern District of Florida, died at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital here this afternoon.

Judge Swayne had been suffering for some time from complicated kidney troubles and was brought here to the residence of Cardner W. Kimball, his son-in-law for treatment by Dr. Edward Martin, of this city. He did not improve and later was removed to the hospital where an operation was performed on him last Tuesday a week. He improved but in a few days he again began to fail. Those at his bedside when he died were his wife, his son Henry G. Swayne, a lawyer of this city, and his daughter, Mrs. Gardner W. Kimball and her husband.

Charles Swayne was born in Guyencourt, Delaware, in August 1842. For a time he was principal of Friends School at West Chester, Pa., and afterward read law in the office of Eli K. Price, of this city. He was graduated from the law school of the University of Pennsylvania and was admitted to the bar in 1874. He was associated in the practice of law with Nathan P. Sharpless and with Colonel Collis, the famous commander of the 114th Regiment, Pennsylvania Zouaves. Mr. Swayne went to Florida in 1885 and later was the Republican candidate for Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court but was defeated.

Judge Swayne's resident in Florida was Pensacola.

Washington, July 5.—Judge Swayne's name became familiar to the reading public a year or two ago through an attempt to impeach him for "high crimes and misdemeanors." His trial took place in the United States Senate towards the close of the first session of the 59th Congress. The trial lasted for five or six weeks, during which the Senate sat as a court and a large committee of the House appeared daily as prosecuting attorneys. Swayne was represented by a number of lawyers and many witnesses were called both for and against him. The specific charges were that he did not reside in his district, that he made excessive charges against the government for expenses that he used his position to extort favors from railroad companies and that he sat in a case in Florida in which his wife was personally interested. The rtial resulted in his acquittal by a vote which was almost strictly along party lines. The original charges against Judge Swain were made by Representative Lamar, of Florida. He was appointed judge of the Northern District of Florida in 1889, but generally spent his time when not engaged in his court duties at his home at Wilmington, Delaware.

ROCKFELLER'S AT CHICAGO.

Both Brothers Gave Reporters Slip all Along Route.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, July 5.—Rockfeller, president of the Standard Oil Company, and his brother William, a director of that corporation are in Chicago tonight ready to appear tomorrow in the United States District Court before Judge K. M. Landis, to be questioned regarding the resources of the Standard Oil Company.

The Rockefeller brothers reached Chicago at 4 o'clock this afternoon over the Michigan Central Railroad and their presence in Chicago for several hours was known only to their attorneys and a few relatives. It had been thought that John D. Rockefeller was traveling over the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, as he was reported to have left Pittsfield, Mass., at 8 o'clock last night and many reporters awaited his appearance at 9 o'clock tonight at the La Salle station. The Rokefeller brothers left the train without being recognized by any one outside of their attorneys and relatives. An automobile was in waiting for the brothers and they were driven direct to the office of Alfred D. Eddy, one of the Standard Oil attorneys.

UNWRITTEN LAW IN GERMANY.

Young Chilian Acquiteed for "Defending Sister's Honor.

(By Cable to the Marning Star),

Brussels, July 5.—Carlos Waddington, son of Louis Waddington, who was charge'affairs of Chile at Brussels, was today acquitted of the charge of murdering Senor Balmaceda, secretary of the Chilian legation, on February 24, 1906.

Balmaceda was engaged to be married to Carlos Waddington's sister, and on the morning of February 24, called on Mme. Waddington and announced his decision to withdraw from the marriage, admitting it was charged, that he had behaved improperly towards Mlle. Waddington but accusing the young woman of having misbehaved before he met her. When Carlos found his mother prostrated as a result of her interview with Balmaceda he drove to the home of the latter and after a quarrel shot and killed him. The Balmaceda family contended that the Waddingtons tried to force the marriage upon Balmaceda and that upon his refusal they resolved to get rid of him.

A Display of Tact.

"Pa, what's tact?"

"I'll tell you. If Mr. Dullwich, our minister, should some day announce that he would resign unless we raised his salary he would not show tact, but if he hinted that he intended to remain here and preach to us all his life unless we gave him a raise he would exhibit tact in the highest degree. I hope you understand."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Charming Woman

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires; neatness, clear eyes, clean, smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. THE FIRST COFFEE.

Accidental Discovery of the Aromatic Beverage.

Near the middle of the fifteenth century a poor Arab was traveling through Abyssinia, and, finding himself weary and weak from fatigue, he stopped near a grove. Then, being in want of fuel to cook his rice, he cut down a tree, which happened to be covered with dead berries. His meal being cooked and eaten, the traveler discovered that the half burned berries were very fragrant. He collected a number of them, and on crushing them with a stone he found that their aroma increased to a great extent. While wondering at this he accidentally let fall the substance into the can which contained his scanty supply of water. Lo, what a miracle! The nearly putrid water was almost instantly purified. He raised it to his lips. It was fresh, agreeable, and in a moment the traveler had so far recovered his strength and energy as to be able to resume his journey. The lucky Arab gathered as many berries as he could, and, having arrived at Aden, in Arabia, he informed the mufti of his discovery. That worthy divine was an inveterate opium smoker and had suffered for years from the influence of that poisonous drug. He tried an infusion of the roasted berries and was so delighted at the recovery of his own vigor that in gratitude to the tree he called it cahuah, which in Arabia signifies "force."

THE CHAMOIS.

Ways of the Shy Animals of the Mountains of Europe.

Exciting sport, the more exciting because of the hardships connected with it, is offered by chamois hunting in the mountains of Europe. The chamois are found everywhere in the highest mountains of Germany, Austria, Switzerland, in Transylvania, in the Carpathians, also in the Alps, and these extremely shy animals are regarded by all true huntsmen as the most desirable of all game. The chamois belongs to the antelope species; but, unlike its kin of the broad plains, it prefers the barren wilds of the high mountains, and, like the mountain sheep, the ibex and the moufion, it selects in this territory full of chasms and canyons the most impassable regions as its lair. During the summer months the chamois roams in the higher altitudes, but in the winter time it must descend to find its feed. After feeding it returns to its old impassable nooks, where it feels secure. As in the case of the deer, the male is called a buck and the female a doe; but, unlike all other animals of this kind, both sexes are antlered, the horns being called "krickelor," but those of the doe are somewhat lighter than those of the buck. The doe brings forth one fawn every year, sometimes two, but very seldom three, which are very dearly loved by the mother and which she protects against all dangers.—Outer's Book.

Male Blushers and Their Cure.

"A good many men blush," said a physician; "some so painfully that they come to me to be cured. The cure I recommend is an old one. It is the abandonment of overheavy clothing, especially of woolen socks. Amazing it is how many male blushers have a predilection for thick socks of wool. But some blushers wear light enough clothes. To them I can only recommend a nerve treatment. I advise them to make speeches at banquets, to be witnesses in murder trials, to go to teas and dances, to develop, in short, the nerve, as a wrestler develops his muscle. Blushing is a difficult disorder to cure. As a rule, it passes away of itself when the victim reaches his thirty-fifth year."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Belle of Virginia BLENDED RYE

When a man goes for a drink of Belle of Virginia Whiskey he hurries because he knows he will have a fine drink, and when he comes away he smiles and smacks his lips because he has had it. Belle of Virginia is a blended whiskey—a rye whiskey carefully and scientifically blended from fine, pure, old whiskies. It's a really good honest article and to those who like a blended whiskey it will give satisfaction clear down to the ground.

Sold at the places where gentlemen go to get a drink.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Swan Quarter, N. C., July 2: Mr. Wilsie Harris was killed by lightning. He was in the field; and, seeing the approaching cloud, hastened home. When he reached the house, being a little wet, he went into the kitchen to dry himself by the fire. Shortly after he went into the kitchen lightning struck the stove flue, and running downward into the room, killed him almost instantly. Mr. Harris leaves a widow and four children.

—Salisbury, July 4: Will Fesperman, a trapeze performer, was seriously injured here this evening by falling from a pole forty feet to the ground. At a public exhibition he attempted to stand on his head on the pole and lost his balance and fell like a dart, landing on his head. The accident was witnessed by a thousand or more people. Fesperman is a Rowan county man. He was carried to a hospital here in a desperate condition.

—Norfolk, Va., July : The second annual meeting of the North Carolina Architectural Association will be held at the Jamestown Exposition July 12 and 13. This association was formed at Wilmington, N. C., July 7, 1906, and elected the following officers: Charles G. Hook, Charlotte, N. C., president; Charles W. Barrett, Raleigh, N. C., vice president, and Franklin Gordon, Charlotte, N. C., secretary and treasurer. The association was formed to unite the architects of the State of North Carolina and the contiguous territory, and to combine their efforts so as to promote the artistic, scientific and practical efficiency of that profession. The association will have as its guests at this meeting the architects of Virginia and South Carolina, a number already having signified their intentions to attend.

—Washington, July 4: The citizens of Washington do not understand the reasons assigned for the postponement of the decision by the State Board of ducation as to the location of the Eastern Training School. As they understood it, the hearing of June 5th was for the purpose of receiving definite bids in writing, so that they could not be misunderstood as to exactly what was offered. Washington's bid was made, both as to cash offer and site, and she has asked the State Board to consider that as not included in the bid first made. The citizens are inclined to feel not only disappointed, but agrieved. However, they are suspending judgment until a reply is received to a letter sent to a member of the board requesting more explicit and satisfactory explanation.

—Fayetteville, N. C., July 4: The list taking for 1907, closed Saturday, and, though the totals have not been officially footed up, the books for this year will show an increase of from one and a quarter to one and a half million dollars, of those of 1906. In 1906 the real and personal tax listed by whites was $4,630,942; unlisted, $106,936. The real and personal tax listed by negroes was $322,193; unlisted, $6,340. This including schedule B and other special taxes, gave Sheriff Marsh $77,477.88 to be collected. Of this amount he collected $76,500; and this, in face of the fact that of the $77,477.88 given him to be collected, some items were found to be errors, some double taxed, some were relieved, some were insolvents, etc. In 1905 the value of real estate in Cumberland was $3,000,259; an increase of only $11,333 over 1904. The value of personal property in 1905 was $1,783,004, an increase of $204,479 over 1904. The property listed by whites in 1905 was $4,500,040, by negroes, $283,223, by Indians $1,256.

—Louisburg, N. C., July 4: Louisburg has for some time past been a field for missionary work on the part of a band of colored holiness preachers. They hold services every afternoon on the courthouse square and at night in the opera house. They are meeting with opposition at the hands of the leading colored people here. A number of them went before the Commissioners on Monday and asked them to forbid their holding service in the court house and their request was granted. Their meetings at night are attended by crowds of the curious of both races. They work themselves into a frenzy of excitement and when they reach some of the two-step songs such scenes of dancing and shouting have never before been witnessed here. One big darkey, a fine specimen of physical manhood, during one of the specially melodious songs came to the front or the stage and did a jumping stunt that threatened to break through the floor. When the leader called for mourners, a large number flocked to the stage and the following prayer was held amid a perfect bedlam of howls and shouts and moans. A number of people of both races pronounce it mockery, but the leader is an intelligent man and his sermon was above the ordinary last night. He taught doctrine that has been openly preached by an evangelist of the Methodist Church here, but it is evident that his followers do not comprehend its meaning.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

NAVAL MOVEMENT TO THE PACIFIC

Admiral Evans Will Take Around Greatest Fleet Ever in Those Waters.

16 BIG BATTLESHIPS GOING

Additional Ships Will Be in Vast Fleet and Trip Around Horn to San Francisco Will Be 13,000 Miles.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, July 5.—Details of the movement of the Atlantic fleet to Pacific waters have been theoretically worked out weeks in advance by the naval general board. But these details are necessarily subject to constant change resulting from the withdrawal of battleships from active commission on account of having been declared antiquated or in need of repairs and the substitution of other ships just going into commission and fresh from the builders' hands.

The opinion of the naval officers is that but one route is feasible for the big ships and that is by the way of the Straits of Magellan. The route from New York across the Atlantic and through the Mediterranean and the Suez canal is open to the objection that it would bring the big ships almost into Japanese waters and the movement might consequently be regarded as a menace, which Secretary Metcalf has stated has never been contemplated. The Suez route, too, is longer, by a thousand miles than the Magellan route, which is about 13,000 miles in length. The opinion is that under ordinary crusing seas, which for the big battleships means about ten or twelve knots an hour, and allowing a seasonable time for coaling en route the Atlantic fleet can make the passage from New York to San Francisco in less than sixty days.

It is considered that Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans will command the fleet. He already had had an extended period of sea service in command rank—longer perhaps than any other admiral in recent years—but it is known by his friends that he would like to wind up his active career by safely conducting around the American continent the greatest fleet of warships ever gotten together in these waters and there is no disposition on the part of the officials of the Department, who have implicit confidence in his ability, to deny the officer this request.

It is believed now that the sailing route of the ships will be about as follows: Leaving New York or Hampton Roads, just which point has not been decided, in the early fall, the battleships would probably steam straight to Culebra, where coal would be taken on. The next stop would be Rio De Janeiro, and from that point the vessels would not halt until they reached Sandy Point in the Straits of Magellan. Here again the coal supply would be replenished for the run to Callao, Peru. The next stage would be from Callao to Panama and from that point the ships would proceed withoutout a stop to San Francisco.

Admiral Evans will, it is expected start out with sixteen battleships besides the colliers, which will move more or less independently and indeed will probably precede him considerably. The armored cruisers Washington and Tennessee, which are now in French waters are under orders to return to the United States and after refitting, to proceed to the Pacific coast to form part of an armored cruiser squadron to be assembled there. It is possible that they will be detained and accompany the battleships on the cruise. When Admiral Evans arrives off the Pacific coast his fleet will be increased by the addition of the battleship Nebraska, newly commissioned and simply awaiting the rounding out of her skelton crew. The battleships Wisconsin and Oregon, now at Bremerton navy yard, Puget Sound will probably have completed their extensive repairs by next month so that they too may be added to the fleet which will then comprise nineteen battleships, besides the armored and protected crusiers of the Pacific fleet.

The Composition of the fleet today is as follows:

Battleships.

Connecticut, Captain Hugo Osterhaus, tonnage 16,000, guns 24 18 knots.

Maine, Captain Nathan N. Niles, tonnage 12,500, guns 20, 15 knots.

Louisiana, Captain Richard Wainwright, tonnage 16,000, guns 24, 18 knots.

Missouri, Captain Greenlief A. Merrim, tonnage 12,500, guns 20, 18 knots.

Virginia, Vaptain Seaton Schroeder, tonage 14,948, guns 24, 19 knots.

Georgia, Captain McCrea, tonage 14,948, guns 24, 19 knots.

New Jersey, Captain William W. Kimball, tonnage 14,948, guns 24, 19 knots.

Rhode Island, Captain (yet to be assigned), tonnage 14,948, guns 24, 19 knots.

Alabama, Captain Samuel P. Conly, tonage 11,525, guns 18, 17 knots.

Illinois, Captain Gottfried Blocklinger, tonnage 11,525, guns 18, 17 knots.

Kearsage, Captain Herbert Wislow, tonage 11,525, guns 22, 16 knots.

Kentucky, Captain Edward B. Barry, tonnage 11,525, guns 22 16 knots.

Ohio, Captain Lewis C. Milner, tonnage 12,500, guns 20, 18 knots.

Minnesta, Captain John Hubbard, tonage 17,650, guns 24, 18 knots.

Vermont, Captain William P. Potter, tonnage 17,650, guns 24 18 knots.

Kansas ,Captain Charles E. Vreeland, tonnage 17,650, guns 24, 18 knots.

Protected Cruisers.

Charleston, Commander Frank E. Beatty, tonnage 9,700, guns 14, 22 knots.

Chicago, Commander Robert M. Doyle, tonnage 4,500, guns 18, 18 knots.

Milwaukee, Commander Charles A. Gove, 9,700, guns 14, 22 knots.

St. Louis, Commander Nathaniel R. Usher, tonnage 9,700, gus 14, 22 knots.

Gunboat Yorktown, Commander Richard T. Mulligan, tonnage 1,710, guns 6, 16 knots.

The armored crusier squadron of the Pacific fleet will be composed of the Washington, Captain Theodore Porter, and Tennessee, Captain Albert G. Berry, (sister ships, 14,500 tons, guns 24, speed 22, and the California and South Dakota, 13,680 tons each, 22.15 knots, 18 guns.

Read Admiral Charles N. Stockton, will command this armored cruiser squadron, the Tennessee being his flagship.

Tokio is Suspicious.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Tokio, July 5.—The report from Washington attributing the proposed sending of sixteen battleships to the Pacific coast to Admiral Dewey's private plan is genevally disbelieved here by those whose knowledge and experience entitle, their opinion to some attention. The United States is not known to possess naval bases in the Pacific adequate for such purposes and the impression prevails that the sending of so large a squadron where sufficient rendezvous does not exist would simply mean that the vessels would be an easy prey to torpedo boats and destroyers. Should sixteen battleships be so employed as to disprove this impression, a record breaking naval feat will have to be accomplished.

No Menace to Japan.

New York, July 5.—Read Admiral Robley D. Evans, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, and who will, it is expected, be in command when the great array of battleships rounds Cape Horn for an excursion into the waters of the Pacific, spent some time at the Brooklny navy yard today.

To a representative of the Associated Press, Admiral Evans explained that no rush orders had been received and only routine repairs were under way. Concerning the trip to the Pacific, he said:

"I have received no orders for a cruise. What may be in contemplation, I of course, do not know. It is my business only to do whatever the government may require."

Admiral Evans attaches no more important to the cruise of the great fleet than have other officers who viewed it as a part of routine naval operation. It was absurd, he added, to construe the appearance of this formidable fighting force in the territorial waters of our West Coast, as a demonstration to impress the friendly government of Japan.

WILL DIRECT THE EXPOSITION

Directors Have Formally Placed Mr. James M. Barr in Complete Control

EXPENSES TO BE REDUCED

Second Mortgage for $325,000 Has Been Authorized to Set Exposition on its Feet—Confident of Success.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., July 5.—At their meeting tonight the board of directors of the Jamestown Exposition adopted the report of the conference committee, formerly electing James M. Barr, as director general of the exposition, giving him absolute power in the direction of the show and leaving it to him to name such other department heads as he may deem necessary in the emergency. It was also decided to retain the board of governors but only in an advisory capacity to Barr, without limiting his authority in any matters of executive policy.

A committee was named to readjust the salaries of the board of governors, as it is thought that their duties will be greatly lessened under the new management. They now receive $2,750 per month. It is expected that this will be cut at least in half. A committee was named to wait on Mr. Barr at once and scure his acceptance of the director generalship under the agreement.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the company in session tonight, authority was voted the board of directors to place a second mortgage on the company's property, to cover a second loan, understood to be for $350,000. The original loan desired was $450,000, on which a first mortgage will be given as security. It is declared that the loans, aggregating $750,000 will cover all of the outstanding obligations of the company and put it on its feet. The directors expect no trouble in placing the two loans. It is also believed that Mr. Barr will accept the directorship on the terms offered.

REDUCED RATE LITIGATION.

Further Argument Heard Before Judge Pritchard at Asheville.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., July 5.—The hearing of the railway rate case of the Southern and other railroad in Virginia against the Corporation Commissioners of that State was resumed before Judge Pritchard today. A. P. Thom, general counsel for the Southern, concluded his argument against the constitutionality of the rate law and was followed by C. Braxton, special counsel for the Virginia Commission. Mr. Braxton was still speaking when court adjourned until tomorrow.

HAYWOOD TRIAL IS NEARING END

Several Witnesses Yesterday Flatly Contradicted Orchard Story of Crime.

DEFENDANT WILL TESTIFY

Mayor Will Go On Stand Monday and Will Be Followed By Haywood, Charged With Aassassination of Steunenberg.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Boise, Idaho, July 5.—The beginning of the end of the trial of Wm. D. Heywaod on a charge of murdering Frank Steunenberg, was reached today. Counsel for the defense announced that, with the exception of three or four witnesses, their case is in before the jury.

Charles H. Moyer, accused president of the Western Federation of Miners, will be called as a witness on Monday, to which time the court today adjourned. Moyer will be followed by Haywood, the defendant.

Judge Fremont Wood has advised counsel that he will consider their requests and will agree with counsel as to what his instructions shall be in order that the argument on both sides may be limited to what the jury be allowed to consider as evidence.

It is now expected that the rebutal evidence in behalf of the State will begin on Wednesday, much depending on the extent of the cross examination of Moyer and Haywood.

The five witnesses on the stand today were called to testify concerning conditions existing in Colorado during the disturbances at Cripple Creek to show that there was no reason to call out the militia. Orchard was further discredited by Owen Barnes ,a miner, who lived near the Independence station, and who, Orchard said, assisted him in the manufacture of bombs. Barnes said he knew Orchard, Adams, Easterley and others, but flatly denied that he ever planned any criminal expedition with Orchard.

J.Kiff, who swore he was financial clerk for George Pettibone for many years and closed up Pettibone's business after he was arrested, contradicted Orchard. On the stand Orchard swore that when he was in San Francisco on the Bradley killing expedition he sent to Pettibone for money, which he received in a registered letter containing five twenty dollar bills. He said the letter was signed "J. Wolff" and the State intimated that that was a name under which Pettibone passed.

The witness today swore that he had sent Orchard no money, but that he had sent a registered letter to Orchard addressed to "Jack Dempsey," in San Francisco. This letter Wolff swore, contained a Masonic charm and a union card which Orchard had left with Pettibone and for which, it has been testified, he wrote after his arrival in San Francisco.

The examination of William D. Haywood early next week is looked forward to as one of the big features of interest in the case.

BUSINESS IS IMPROVED

Better Crop Outlook Has Stimulated Commercial Lines.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 5.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Continued favorable weather conditions have made for further crop development, the expansion in retail trade in light Summer goods, and notable stimulation of hitherto lagging reorder business. One of the most favorable developments of the week has been the improvement in collections at many markets, a sure sign that retail stocks are moving though the number of cities reporting reduction sales or slow trade is sufficiently large to show that trade in Summer wear has not in all cases been satisfactory. The usually measures of business, such as clearings and failures, point to irregular conditions. Desire to await a clearer view of the crop out-turn limits future committments, but the situation in cottons is very strong on the uncertain crop outlook and a heavily sold ahead condition at the mills. The future outlook as to prices of goods is now having the attention of manufacturers and wholesalers. Holiday quiet rules in the shoe trade, but re cent warm weather has helped retailers and jojbbers and the outlook for the coming year is hopeful. Eastern shipments for the six months of 1907 aggregate 2,465,340 cases, a decrease of 3.8 per cent from the same period of 1906.

Considerable more activity is reparted at leading wool markets and all staple wools have sold well at Boston and at leading interior markets.

Pig iron continues quiet and prices are easier at some markets. Premiums for spot iron have practically disappeared.

While buyers of copper are still holding off in the hope of obtaining lower prices, quotations are unchanged from last week.

This is a Safe Clothing Store

First, because every garment is made of the choicest fabrics in their respective grade.

Next, because prices are always safely lowest.

Last, and most satisfactory, because you can return the goods and get the money back, whether it's the fit, fabric, the color or anything else that induces you to change your mind.

And wonderfully few pieces of clothing come back to us. Perhaps it's because the clothes are so good, the styles so excellent, the fit so carefully formed, and the prices so pleasantly little.

Try Our $15, 18 or 20 Suits

By them you may judge this store. We never before sold such good clothing at those prices, nor have we ever shown such great variety. Choice of checks, plaids and stripes, in cassimeres, cheviots, valours and worsteds, besides blues and black. Yes, we guarantee every garmen just as good in all respects as though you had it made especially to your order, as good as though you paid half as much again. The clothing of no other store comes so near to custom work.
